

AN OFFICE OF PRAYER

for Our Brother among Those Who Sleep in Christ

FATHER LOUIS

We know in part
and we prophesy in part;
but when that which is perfect has come,
that which is imperfect will be done away with.

We see now through a mirror in an obscure manner,
but then face to face.

Now I know in part,
but then I shall know even as I have been known.

1 Cor 13

V. O God, come. is concluded with a final "Alleluia", as follows:

...world without end. A-men. Al-le-lu-ia!

Hymn Stanza 1 by Schola; stanzas 2-3 by everyone.

We remain seated for the readings, psalms, and reponsorial-chants which follow.

First Reading Fr. Louis speaks to us about Silence, Poverty, and Death.

Silent Prayer

A Psalm by Father Louis

Ant. Let us sleep like ea-gles in the Cliff, * let us rest in the power of the Lord our God, al-le-lu-ia!

A Psalm

THE Lord is my rock and my fortress and He dwells in the midst of His people.

Come, let us enter the House of the Almighty and stand to praise Him.

Let us sleep like eagles in the cliff,
let us rest in the power of the Lord our God!

Let us hide ourselves in the great mountain of His might,
Who dwells concealed in the midst of a forsaken people.

Even His thunder is the refuge of the poor. Remain seated.

ETERNAL rest grant unto him, O Lord:
and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Repeat antiphon.

Second Reading Fr. Louis speaks about the prophetic vocation and the sign of Jonas.

Silent Prayer

Song of Jonas

Ant. Have you had sight of Me, Jonas My child? * Mercy with-in mer-cy with-in mer-cy.

From the Song of Jonas Jon 2

OUT of my distress I called to the Lord,
and he answered me;

From the midst of the nether world I cried for help,
and you heard my voice.

For you cast me into the deep, into the heart of the sea,
and the flood enveloped me;

All your breakers and your billows ( . ) passed over me.

Down I went to the roots of the mountains; t
the bars of the nether world were closing behind me forever,

But you brought up my life from the pit,
O Lord, my God.

When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the Lord;

My prayer reached you
in your holy temple.

Those who worship vain idols forsake their source of mercy.

But I, with resounding praise,
will sacrifice to you;

What I have vowed I will pay:
deliverance is from the Lord. Remain seated.

ETERNAL rest grant unto him, O Lord:
and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Repeat antiphon.

Third Reading Fr. Louis speaks to us about the Shadow of God's Wings.
