

“Lead Me, Guide Me”: The Gift of Black Catholics

by
Christopher Pramuk

February 21st, 2021 ~ 3 pm EST
(2 pm CST ~ 1 pm MST ~ 12 pm PST)

Free Virtual Webinar

Register at:

<http://bit.ly/Merton15register>

For further information contact:

502 272 8177 / 8187

Dr. Christopher Pramuk is Regis University Chair of Ignatian Thought and Imagination, and Professor of Theology. He is the author of six books, including two award-winning studies of Thomas Merton, as well as Hope Sings, So Beautiful: Graced Encounters Across the Color Line, a meditation on race relations in society and church. Chris's latest book, The Artist Alive: Explorations in Music, Art, and Theology, draws from his many years of using music, poetry, and the arts in the classroom. Chris lectures widely on topics such as racial justice, and the witness of Thomas Merton.

Thomas Merton Center
www.merton.org

Sponsored by: Campus Ministry; The Office of Identity and Inclusion; Theology Department;
Magee Christian Education Foundation and Louisville ITMS Chapter