Presents the following Non-Credit Courses

In Cooperation with the Thomas Merton Studies Center:

ECUMENISM

ECUMENISM: Whence and Whither?

Now that ten years have passed since the Vatican Council, what is the ecumenical atmosphere? This course explores the background of Protestant, Jewish, Catholic relations before the Council, the impact of the Council itself, and development since the council. Current issues in ecumenism which will emerge through discussions between class members, staff, and guest, include: the missions of the Church, church and state, authority, interfaith marriage, and worship.

Ira V. (Jack) Birdwhistell, Ph.D., Instructor in church history, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Reverend Gerald Dentinger, Director Office of Ecumenical Affairs
